

‘Marketplace for the Mind’ An Agricultural Educational Resource

This site contains “current educational materials aligned to Pennsylvania’s Academic Standards.”
This site is maintained by the PA Department of Agriculture in cooperation with the PA Dept. of Education.

The screenshot shows the homepage of the Marketplace for the Mind website. At the top is the logo "MARKETPLACE FOR THE MIND.COM" with the tagline "AN AGRICULTURAL EDUCATION RESOURCE". A navigation bar includes links for ABOUT US, AG IN PA, SPECIAL EVENTS, EDUCATION, CAREERS, PRODUCTION AG, LOCAL GOVERNMENT, and NEWS. A "Curriculum Materials" button with a "Click to Initiate Search" link is in the top right. The main heading is "AGRICULTURAL EDUCATION". Below it, a large text block explains that agricultural concepts can be enhanced in a classroom by reaching beyond school walls, offering hands-on learning opportunities and fun projects. To the right of this text is a photo of two children working on a project. On the left side, there is a vertical list of links: Ag Projects, Ag Courses, Certifications, Cool Links, Featured Teacher, Grant Links and Writing Tips, Hands-on Learning, Higher Education, Pennsylvania Academic Standards, Professional Development, Scholarships, and Secretary Wolff in The Classroom. Below the main text block, there is another photo of children in a field and a paragraph about professional development events and workshops.

‘Marketplace for the Mind’ Curriculum Materials

This feature finds ag teaching materials by various searches, including PA Academic Standards.

The screenshot shows the "CURRICULUM MATERIALS" search page. It features a "LIBRARY SEARCH" section with a prompt "Type in or select at least one of the criteria below." There are input fields for Publisher, Author, Title, and ISBN. A dropdown menu for Standards Number is open, showing a list of standards from 3.1.4 to 3.4.4. Another dropdown menu for Category is open, showing options like Animal Science, Plant Science, Food Science, Agricultural Mechanics, and Agricultural Business. A third dropdown menu for Item Type is open, showing options like article, brochure, CD, educational game, and fact sheet. At the bottom are "Search" and "Reset" buttons. On the left side, there is a graphic of three books and a red apple.
